

Deepak p
U square

USTAD HOTEL

Passion with dignity and aspiration makes a person perfect, irrespective of financial gain. When this passion blends with humanity, care and affection, the passion would eventually be a heavenly contribution to the world.

Faizi (Dulquer Salman), lives with his father Razaq (Siddiq) and four sisters in Dubai, has a dream of becoming a chef but his father (Siddiq) disagrees with his career choice. Upon grief and disappointment, he went his ancestor's town and joined his grandfather Kareem's (Thilakan) restaurant which is called Ustad Hotel. Kareem Ikka has been running this hotel for 35 years and everybody loves his cooking. Faizi involves with this business and supports his grandfather in each aspect of the business operations. As both of their passion is cooking, so their chemistry would turn into a perfect blend of aspiration, divination and persistence. Shahana (Nithya Menen), the love interest of Faizi, eventually involves with the team and they renovate their restaurant which also gains much popularity in the surrounding areas and makes it as the modern brand name.